

Echoes

By Max Bissonnette

Text from "Echoes" by Sophie M. Hensley

SATTB Choir

Performance Notes

In← and Ex→ above an "x" notehead are used to indicate "inhale" and "exhale."

The whistling in this piece is not required and notes are inside parentheses, but should be done if possible.

*A breath
And a sigh, -
How we fly
From Death!*

*A breath
And a sigh, -
How we fly
From Death! -*

*A palm
Warm pressed,
As we guessed
Love's psalm.*

*Sing on O our bird!
Thou art heard
Alone.*

*A word
Breathed close,
And then rose
The bird*

*We know
No life,
Neither strife,
Nor woe,*

*That cowers
In the wood
'Mid a flood
Of flowers,*

*Nor aught
But this hour, -
Love's dower
Dear bought. -*

*Till Love's
Heart sighs,
Like the cries
Of doves, -*

*Death's voice
Is away,
And we may Rejoice.*

*Then sings
His song,
Beating strong
White wings, -*

*The bird
Of our song
May be long Unheard,*

*Heart clear
Though faint,
Like a saint
In prayer. -*

*But, Dear,
Bend low;
It is now
We hear.*

*He reigns
In power,
And Love's hour Disdains.*

*Dear Heart
Your kiss! -
After this
We part.*

*Forget
For a day
All his sway,
Life's fret.*

*A breath
And a sigh, -
How we fly
From Death!*
